Mr. V's is located on the outskirts of the Franklin Mills Mall complex. It is a nice Philly style steak shop with the ordering window and the pickup window and the buckets of free add-ons in between. The steak was spot on. Nothing like a good sliced rib eye to fill your belly matched with some onions and melted American cheese - ladled on and oozing like it's supposed to. The roll they use was a softer roll that does not take away or overpower the taste of the meat and cheese. Overall, a solid steak for an area that desperately needs one. What a great find and alternative to hitting chain restaurants when over by the mall.

Great, great blend of a classic Philly Cheese Steak, double meat and American – with. Notice the difference of the cheese when it is ladled on. Makes you want to bite the screen doesn't it?
