If you're nostalgic for some authentic German meats, this place is for you. Found in Rockledge, this deli is full of classic brats, wursts, beef and veal and some interesting new twists on German sausages. We sampled a few different things here, with the highlights being the bacon knackwurst and the bockwurst. One EatingTeam member even proclaimed these to be the best he's ever had. Also a standout was a veal stuffed with sausage meat and wrapped in bacon, just awesome. The staff here is also very helpful explaining their products and different ways to prepare them, even on a busy Saturday morning. And they have a big cow overlooking the parking lot, so we will be visiting this place quite often.
